Attorney Kelleher,

I am writing in response to your inquiry regarding whether the MA Department of Youth Services (DYS) can hold your juvenile client, who is currently subject to proceedings in the U.S. District Court in Boston. Pursuant to G.L. c. 120, section 25, DYS is authorized to hold youth committed to its care (detained) or custody (committed in resolution of pending matters) by the authority of the U.S. Courts or Magistrates.

Should the U.S. Marshals Service request that MA DYS hold your client during the pendency of his proceedings, we are happy to coordinate with them, subject to our bed capacity at the time of their request.

Thank you,
Cecely Reardon
